

Teachers Aid Halldale P-TA

The Halldale P-TA now has 675 members, Mrs. McAllister, membership chairman, announced today. This is 60 members short of the 100% mark. At the same time 100% of the teachers are members.

The winning room bringing in memberships was Don Heath's fourth grade room for the upper grades and Mrs. Lillian Biggins room for the lower grades.

There was a public welfare school of information at the Gardens Teen-Age Center this week. Those representing Halldale were Mesdames: Jack Gardiner, Carter, Safety Chairman; Claude Johnson, Motion Picture and television Chairman; Don Wolf, juvenile protective chairman; and C. C. DeVore, president. A paper and fat salvage drive starts tomorrow. Those to be contracted are Mrs. E.R. Martin at 435W or Mrs. Anrade at 12951J.

A Halloween Carnival will be held next Wednesday at 10: a.m. Montie Montana will entertain the children and their parents. Children and parents may purchase lunch at school on carnival day.

Correctly dressed Frenchmen of the 1820's wore two waistcoats on formal occasions — a vest of white pique over one of black velvet, with the velvet edge rolling over the white.

LAYING DOWN ON THE JOB?—Heck, No! That's TV's Maxine Manning, taking advantage of the resiliency of the revolutionary new terrazzo floor in the soon-to-be-opened Food Giant Market in Lynwood, newest addition to the Market Town Chain. Adding pure latex rubber to conventional terrazzo provides a "springiness" to cushion shopper's steps. The floor itself is cushioned upon a base of sound-and-shock absorbing sand.
